FOREWORD

“IT WAS the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to Heaven, we were all going direct the other way—in short, the period was so far like the present period, that some of its noisiest authorities insisted on its being received, for good or for evil, in the superlative degree of comparison only.”

Most of you know that this is the opening sentence of the “Tale of Two Cities” written by Charles Dickens sometime after 1850. The setting of this story was around the period 1775, but as the sentence is reared we realize that the idea is just as applicable to 1956.

It is interesting to note that Dickens thought that “superlatives” were overworked in 1775. He would be amused and dismayed were he to see to what degrees we are influenced by superlatives today. We are beset on all sides by advertising mediums entreating us to use a bewildering array of products each of which is claimed to be the only possible solution to our expanding needs. “Education for All” has become part of the creed for our present democratic way of life. Education has given more people than ever before a desire for reading,—and writing; so we have clever words, phrases, and jargons penetrating our thoughts and lives. By means of radio, television, books, newspapers, and magazines we are numbed with the extraordinary, the sordid, the brilliant, the dull, the social injustices, until it is difficult to locate the simple truths that are the basis of our civilization. No matter what race or culture a man has been born into, regardless of all extremes, he still requires such basic needs as food, shelter, companionship with family and friends, and spiritual aid.

The paths we take to get these necessities have been varied but truthfulness, kindness, and the helping of those less fortunate are as fundamental as the air we breathe. I would not wish for you a soft, easy way of life. But I hope that with your native intelligence and scholastic training you will learn to distinguish the differences between the true and the false, between right and wrong. Do not in your youth and inexperience confuse wisdom with education, nor tolerance with vacillation. When you have an opportunity to do something worth while—do it.

“I shall pass through this world but once. If therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do, let me do it now; let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.” (DeGrellet).

—LOU GOODWIN.

In Memoriam

W. G. E. PULLEYBLANK, B.A.

Born: February 14th, 1890

Died: October 2nd, 1955

He was Assistant Principal at Central for twenty years, from 1935 to 1955 . . .

AT last the 1955-1956 scholastic year is over and this volume stands as a partial record of the achievements of that period. Many students have spent much time and thought on its compilation. All who receive the Analecta will join me in thanking them for a job well done.

To Mr. Foster, our business advisor; Mr. Gislason, our literary advisor; and Mrs. Hutchinson, the office secretary, we wish to say a sincere "Thank you." Their guidance and help has been invaluable in the publication of the Analecta.

The advertising in the Analecta is a major factor in the financing of this publication. The firms who have purchased space on our pages merit your thanks as well as your consideration of their products and services.

Central's Home and School Association, with Mr. J. Leslie Hill as president, is the largest and most influential in the province of Alberta. The staff and students of Central wish to thank this organization for the Graduating Banquet and Dance and the many interesting meetings held during the past year. The Association's interest in the welfare of the students has been unflagging.

Members of Central's staff have given generously of their time to chaperone social functions, supervise clubs and organizations, and coach house league and interscholastic sports. To these people, we, the students of Central, express our thanks.

Finally, it is my pleasure to dedicate this book to our new Vice-Principal, Mr. J. Winston Churchill.

—DAVID HALE, Editor.

VALEDICTORY

THIS is our night, Central, yours and mine!

It belongs not only to the graduating class but to you also. We students stand on the threshold of a new world, a new realm. Whether we conquer it or not depends entirely on what we ourselves are and on what we have accomplished during our years with you.

When we first passed through your doors we were a parade of timid Grade Tens, pushed into a confusing world in which we could either sink or swim. Your halls were a labyrinth and your rooms unfamiliar. We were faced with the gigantic task of learning to become a part of you, to be "at home" here. We began by participating in your sports, joining your activities and playing the game according to your rules. Little by little you became not just a school but "our school". Your victories became our victories and your losses our losses. Your teams have fought not only for the cheers of their friends in the stands but also for your approval and, although this year we were not as fortunate as usual, the spirit and desire of the players has been a credit to you.

Our life with you has been like the reading of a book, an absorbing book. Every year has been a chapter or a series of chapters, each holding our interest until the end and each marked in some special way for everyone of us. There were the passes, the failures, the football and basketball games, the track meets, the trip to Edmonton; but each paragraph has taken us one step further away from adolescence towards adulthood. We have now reached the climax of the story, thanks to your patience and perseverance in giving us not only scholastic knowledge but character education in the subjects of fair play and initiative. You have taught us the meaning of the world self-dependence and, after the first few wavering steps without our familiar supports, we gradually forgot our need of them. You have helped us to grow up. We hope to be worthy of you.

Our future is our own but it is you who have given it to us. These years have been stepping stones over which you have firmly led us, steps leading to university, nursing school, or the world of business. Our principal is your guiding hand and the teachers your skilled and supple fingers. They have probed for our difficulties, not always without pain, and quickly found a cure. Without them this final chapter could never have been written. We now offer them our gratitude for their forbearance and understanding.

VALEDICTORY

TODAY we make our official good-by to Central. Here we have worked and played for some three years. Here we have met new teachers, new ideas, new friends. Here, too, we have begun to realize a little better a purpose in life, and have set our occupational goals for the future.

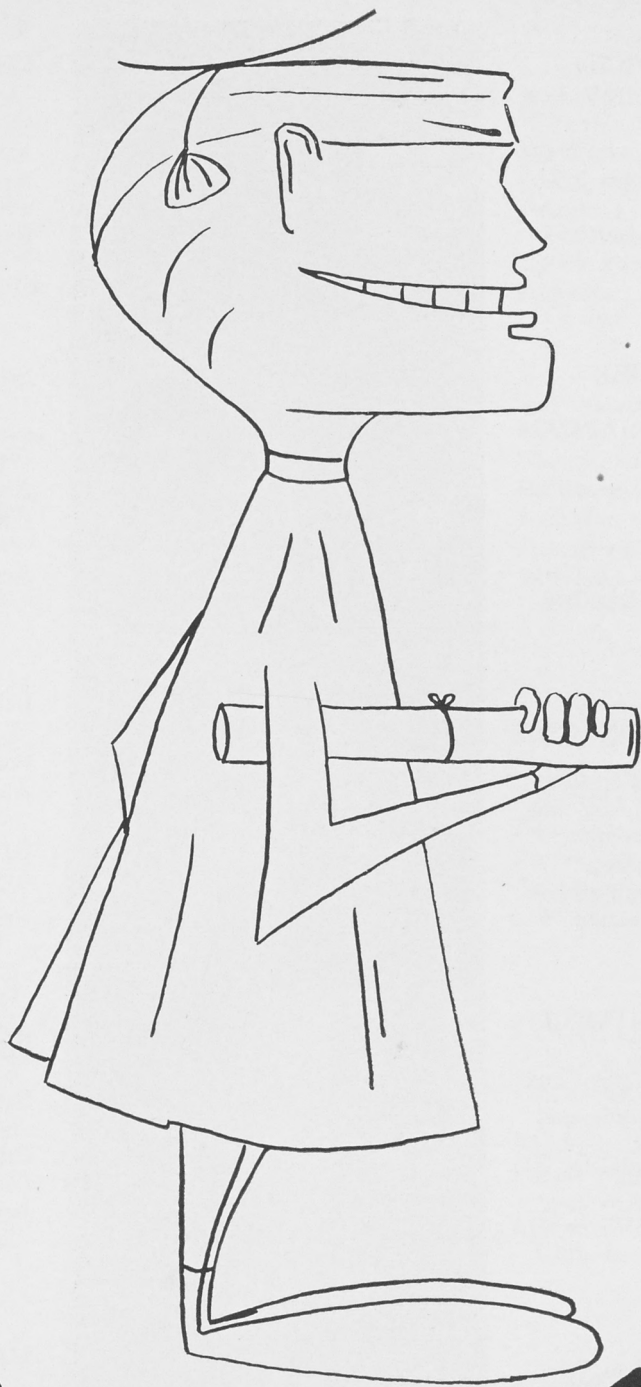

When we leave Central, many of us shall go to work, many to further education. Either path is a new one, one we look forward to pursuing; for there we shall have the opportunity of proving ourselves, of putting to use our years of learning. Yet, even in the midst of that absorbing chase, we shall be unable to forget our years at Central, for these years are intimately connected with our mental awakening to our environment: social, scientific, and cultural.

As long as we live, we shall always realize that these three years have been crucial in the shaping of our personalities, ideals, and mental attitudes. Were it not for the social contacts made here, for the atmosphere that pervades Central, for the hundred and one classroom incidents we have witnessed and participated in, we would all be different people today. Even more important in this regard were the instructions given us and the examples set for us by our teachers; for their ideas have impressed all of us in some way, and, as the ambassadors of knowledge, they have directed our views on many fields of thought.

Perhaps an even more real tie with Central lies in its association for us with these past years of increasing maturity and broadening outlook. We must always remember that it was at Central that we first glimpsed the world beyond, first sensed the challenging problems of life, first made important decisions.

Such thoughts must come to mind each time we meet an old acquaintance, each time we make use of the knowledge here gained, each time we reminisce. In fact, Central has become an integral part of our lives, an experience not to be forgotten, a memory to carry with us always.

Prophecy

These fates that I will prophecy,
 Only time will prove but true;
 And so you Grad's of Central High
 I come to pen the fates of you.

Of Hale the Physicist, I do read
 He has, so says the latest journal
 Perfected that which we all need:
 Popcorn, with a hullless kernel.

Nobel man Radford we must salute,
 His contribution has made life easier,
 Cereal from guns we need not shoot,
 We now can have them soggier, creamier!

Our own Olympiad—Patricia Powers,
 Is dashing to and dashing fro:
 She's caught her man, a cold, and all,
 We proud to have her in our Hall.

Through a book store window I perceived,
 A book, to wit, "Cherchez la Femme".
 Pulitzer prize winning—"Twas well received,
 Author Zemans tells "how" for men.

Circus had its wheel called Ferris,
 Now business has its tycoon Harris,
 Wheels do roll; so they say,
 Bill made "his" with curds and Whey!

A word or two I must state here
 Of Scientist friend and old companion,
 Miss Watson, to whom I toast my cheer,
 Inventor of the tearless onion.

Christopher Evans, the British tout,
 Has been seen scanning the wickets
 With the ponies it's been his lifelong bout
 His ambition: to have the winning tickets.

To Riback and Stevens that medical team,
 All our eyes must be raised,
 Of the "Crop" they are the cream,
 For emptying bed pans they are praised.

PROPHECY

Newspapers all, have their photo,
The bylines carry the courageous epic,
Of swimmers, Allison, Gale and Hashimoto,
They swum the Elbow—"Found it Hectic".

Pam Jones, I see upon the rostrum,
Oration is her folly now,
Proclaiming suffrage for all women
To her, we men must take a bow.

Clark and Clayton's (The Store for women),
Have "Dashing Duds for Dandy Dolls",
Costumes guaranteed to catch your he-men,
For this lure, every man falls!

Sproule's sprouts, for Brusseled people,
(This alliteration you may well take note)
Are the rage; they shout it from the steeple
Fried or frozen; to eat with sour-kraut.

And so the time has come to say Adieu,
But to the Grads, to all of you,
I wish the best—the best for years to come,
And may you have your share in happiness and fun.

—Fred Valentine.

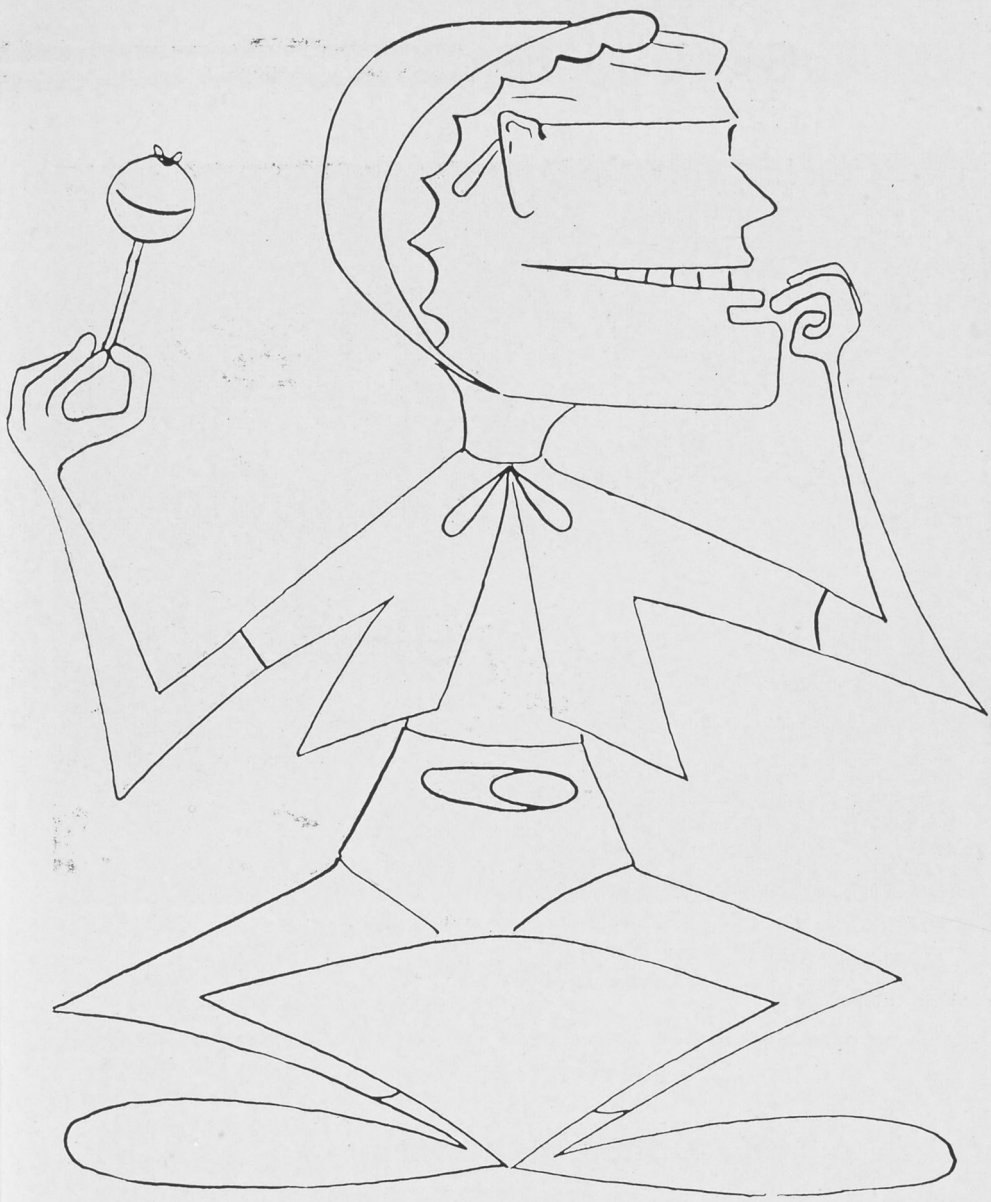

VALEDICTORY—Continued.

It is with mixed feelings of regret and achievement that we see the pages of these years closing. Soon we will put this book aside and begin another. With the passing of time some of the characters may grow dim, but your motto: "LUX SIT (Let there be light)" is written into our lives.

And so, to you Central, to all you mean to us, to your classrooms, even to your halls but, above all, to the teachers who personify for us your spirit we say a reluctant farewell and a fervent thank you. You are our school. We will not forget you.—The Class of '56.

—PAMELA JONES.

Contributions were made to many worthwhile projects including the Allen Gray Fund, Central's War Orphan, football helmets for the Central Rams, and a contribution to the hiring of an orchestra for the Graduation Banquet and Dance.

The Weeper

Literary Advisors	Miss M. Calder, Mr. G. W. Foster
Editors	Bill Downton, Arlene McKay
Assistant Editors	Penny Moert, Ian Burn, Sharon Sanford, Yale Chernoff, Jack Merrimain
Art Editor	Norm Louie

The great success of this year's Weeper is largely due to the untiring efforts of the group who published it.

Contributions from the Creative Writing Class made up the large "Literary Section" with its various fiction articles. Each of the seven issues of "The Weeper" contained an editorial, a male and female personality of the month, an athlete of the month, and sections for athletics, activities and humor. In short, anything that went on in and around the school had a write-up in our school paper.

Our most sincere thanks go to Mrs. Hutchinson and Miss Parsons for their capable assistance in typing and printing the paper.

Cercle Francais

“C'est en parlant qu'on apprend a parler.”

This might well have been the motto of the Cercle Francais as their meetings were conducted entirely in French. The large membership this year necessitated two groups being formed. Group I held their meetings on Wednesdays after four and Group II held their sessions on Friday noons. The term executives of both groups were:

Supervisor	Miss Barclay
Presidents	Grant Lawson, Barbara Kartzke
Secretaries	Sharon Stewart, Nancy Clark

Two reunions of all Calgary high-school French clubs were held during the winter months. All who attended these social evenings agreed that these reunions were very beneficial to them.

The annual “Vente de Bonbons” held in March, proved extremely successful, with the result that the Central High branch of the Cercle Francais was able to make a considerable contribution to the French Clubs’ Scholarship Fund.

Hearty thanks go to Miss Barclay for her untiring efforts to promote the French language in Central High; and good-luck to Pat Toombs and Bob Knipe who won scholarships to study French at Laval Uuniversity during the summer.

The Booster Club

Advisors	Miss James, Miss Suitor
President	Kay Reed
Vice-President	Peggy Dickson
Secretary-Treasurer	Kathy Matsuoka

The activities undertaken by this club have been numerous and varied. During the football and basketball seasons the activities included cheer rallies and making slogan buttons, posters, pom-poms and rosettes. Central's first dance, "Booster Bounce", was presented on October 7th, following a football game. A contest was sponsored to get new cheers for the games. Congratulations to the winners, Anne Greenfield and Elizabeth McKee. To add a little color to the games, majorette batons were purchased and the cheer leaders' megaphones were painted.

Central's traditional purple and gold wiggies could be seen on numerous Centralites after the Booster Club undertook a selling campaign.

Cash awards were given to the best decorated cars preceding the parade to the track meet.

The Booster Club did its part in contributing to the war orphan fund as well as helping to pay for the orchestra at the Graduation Dance.

The Orchestra

Conductor Mr. E. I. Carter
 President Clarke Odden
 Vice-President Edna Pitt
 Secretary-Treasurer Elizabeth Taylor

Under the baton of Mr. E. I. Carter, Orchestra practices were held every Tuesday and Wednesday noon from 12.45 to 1.45. Members who wished to get five credits for their active participation in this club, met an extra hour on Mondays.

To raise money for Orchestra sweaters, the club presented a noon of movies. They also sponsored a dance in January which featured a half-hour of entertainment. The new sweaters are of a dark blue, V-necked style with a Central crest sewn on the front, bearing letters "ORCH".

During the year the Orchestra played at Home and School meetings, and for the students at the Christmas Assembly.

As an additional service, Central's Orchestra played for the graduation ceremonies at "The Woods' Christian Home".

The last function for the Orchestra, but certainly not the least, was their performance at the Central Graduation ceremonies. The club contributed ably to the program by playing a march as the students entered the auditorium, and later an overture.

Central's Orphan

Through the combined efforts of the Senior Girls' Y-Teen, the Boys' Hi-Y, the Students' Council, the Booster Club, and the Foster Parents' Plan for War Children, the students of Central High adopted a twelve-year-old Greek boy—Lakaris Panayotis.

Lakaris's father was wounded during an uprising and suffered the loss of his right leg above the knee. As a result, he has been able to find employment for a six months' period only. The family owns a bit of land, a small vineyard and a few olive trees, but even the combined income from the farm and the father's wages never amounts to more than $14.00 per month. This small sum will be further reduced when Mr. Panayotis is forced to leave his present job.

Our war orphan has a sister and an older brother, Aloukus, who is an apprentice carpenter working without pay. Lakaris is well developed, enjoys good health and like his brother, aspires to become a carpenter.

The adoption of a war orphan by a group of high school students is something unique in Alberta and something for the students of Central High to be extremely proud of. During the months to come, how about writing to Lakaris? If you have any clothes or toys around your home that you no longer have need of, send them, too. You may rest assured that they will be very welcome gifts.

Letters and parcels may be sent to the following address:

FROM: Foster parent's name, folder number and address.

TO: Lakaris Panayotis, No. 29119G,
c/o Foster Parents' Plan for War Children,
P.O. Box 65, Station B,
Montreal, Quebec.

The Glee Club

Director	Mr. E. I. Carter
President	Grant Lawson
Vice-President	Pam Jones
Secretary-Treasurer	Nancy Clark
Club Pianist	Archie Stone

Under the capable supervision of Mr. Carter, the Glee Club has taken an active part in school activities this year.

Four-part work consisted of alto, bass, soprano and tenor. The Glee Club made its first appearance to the public eye at our Christmas Assembly, where they led the school in singing Christmas carols. Four songs were sung in harmony by the club and individual carolers voiced various verses. Later, the Glee Club was heard and seen by thousands of Calgarians, when they appeared on television on the "Feminine View".

The biggest project of the year undertaken by these singers was a "Variety Night", held in the school auditorium early in April. Songs were presented from "H.M.S. Pinafore", and "The Mikado", along with Negro spirituals and some of the well known classical choral music. Other entertainment included piano solos by Archie Stone, violin selections by Fran MacDonald and an enjoyable magician act by Bob Lockwood. The guest artists were the "Halpenny Singers", a choir of ten men.

May 14th saw the Glee Club entered in a music festival held at Queen Elizabeth Junior High School.

The final appearance of the club was made at the grade twelve graduation exercises, where the graduating class and the other guests were entertained by one of the most successful Glee Clubs Central has ever had.

Front Row—Debby Wing, Barb Weiland, Joyce Mathieson.

The Cheer Leaders

Let's go Central, let's go now,
They want to win, we'll show them how,
You ned a team, team, that's on the beam, beam,
You need a crowd, crowd, that's plenty loud, loud,
You need a cheer, cheer, that you can hear, hear,
Well . . . We've got the team that's on the beam,
We've got the crowd that's plenty loud,
We've got the cheers that you can hear,
So let's go Central, let's go now.

This was one of the many yells, led by eight girls in their little purple skirts and white school sweaters, that were heard at all the interscholastic football games, the basketball games, the track meet, and the cheer rallies held during the year.

The cheer leaders this year consisted of: Betty-Lou Kindler, Roberta Newington, Carole Stevens, Joyce Matheson, Sally Stucky, Eleanor Waldon, Barbara Weiland, and Debbie Wing. After practicing faithfully three noons a week, these girls were ready to join voices on Friday nights to produce snappy cheers which helped to keep up the morale of the teams.

The enthusiasm of this energetic group quickly spread throughout the attending crowds and before the evenings were over, Central's chant could be heard above all the other schools—"GO, CENTRAL, GO!"

ACTIVITIES

The Chess Club

A new activity took shape this year in the form of the Chess Club. The executive included:

Supervisor Mr. Gislason
President John Brews
Secretary-Treasurer Vance Marston

The aim of this club is to provide a stimulating form of recreation for interested students. Although the members met on Monday and Friday noons only, practice sessions could inevitably be witnessed every noon in the lunch rooms.

This game of wits proved very exciting to those who participated in it and it is hoped by all the club members, that the Chess Club will continue to grow in future years.

Awards Day

This year Awards Day was held in the middle of June. The best all-around girls was awarded the Frances Woolverton Memorial Cup, and the best all-around boy was awarded the Murray Law Memorial Trophy. Letter Crests for activities and athletics were presented to the outstanding boys, while the outstanding girls received pins. The Joe Dutton, Darcy Scott, and Tom Barr Memorial Sweaters were among the other athletic awards presented.

The captains of the winning teams were given the cups, shields, and plaques which were won in athletic events.

Central Home and School Association

The 1955-56 executive of Central's Home and School Association included:

President J. Leslie Hill
First Vice-President Col. W. K. Jull
Recording Secretary Mrs. H. Dickson
Treasurer Mrs. L. Pearlman

During the year the policy of this association was heartily adhered to—"To develop interest in the education and welfare of students in the home, in the school, and in the community".

At the various meetings, such talks as "Good Books for High School Students", "Canadian History", "University" and "Iraq", were presented by Miss P. Bowlby, Alderman G. MacEwan, W. F. Allen and Terry Storey respectively.

A special "Grade Ten Night" was held in November to enable the parents of the freshman class to meet and visit the teaching staff. "Open House", a similar program, was held in the early spring for all parents.

The annual farewell banquet and dance was given to the graduating students by the Home and School Association on June 1st. The 1956 graduating class would like to thank this group for their generosity and the unstinted effort that made this send-off both pleasant and memorable.

ACTIVITIES

Gamma Chi

Gamma Chi, the co-ordinating council for all of Calgary's Y-Teen groups, is composed of representatives from the Y-Teen organizations of Central, Crescent Heights and Western. The chief functions of Gamma Chi are to facilitate the sharing of ideas among the three clubs; to give program suggestions when needed, and to act as a general advisory body. It was the girls of Gamma Chi who did such things as making most of the arrangements for the Provincial Y-Teen Conference, which was held in Calgary during the Easter holidays.

In executing its many duties, Gamma Chi has proven to be an indispensable part of the Y-Teen organization.

Gamma Phi

Program suggestions for the Hi-Y Clubs in Calgary was just part of the work undertaken by Gamma Phi, the co-ordinating body for all the Calgary Hi-Y Clubs.

They promoted the International Hi-Y Conference held in Minot, North Dakota, to try to get closer affiliation with other clubs. Gamma Phi also raised money for the Allen Gray Fund.

Representatives to Gamma Phi from Central included: Ross Allison, Mike Brookes, Pat Palmer and Murray Young.

Alumni Night

On December 23rd for the first time in Central's history, a social evening was held for Central's Alumni and her present students. Decorated with streamers and innumerable balloons, the auditorium was set for a lively evening. The fun began with a basketball game between the Central Rams and a team made up of alumni. The top score rolled from team to team but the alumni came out at the final bell as the victors. Following the game a dance was held. Cokes were given to all who were in attendance. The evening turned out to be such a success that it is hoped by all who attended it that the Students' Council will make Alumni Night an annual affair.

Camera Club

One of the enthusiastic groups in the school is the Camera Club, sponsored by Miss Jagoe. The main activity of the club is taking pictures of the various school activities and "candid" shots for the Analecta.

Tea-Zaar

On November 24th, amid the strains of Oriental music, Central's Y-Teen once again presented their annual Tea-Zaar.

In keeping with the music, decorations, which were also in Oriental motif, featured two ferocious-looking dragons on the front walls and a magnificent Buddha on the centre of the stage. June Kondo and Kathy Matsuoka, attired in their native costumes, completed the picture by standing on either side of the Buddha.

Kathy Matsuoka provided the entertainment with a charming Oriental dance.

Presiding at the tea-urns were: Mrs. G. W. Foster, Mrs. J. W. Churchill, Mrs. R. Warren, Miss M. Sutor, Miss N. James, Miss F. Todd, Miss H. Hobbs, and Mrs. T. Bailey.

Proceeds from this project were sent to Madagascar.

The members of the Senior Girls' Y-Teen and their advisor, Miss E. Jagoe, are to be congratulated for making this tea the success it was.

Memorial Service

On the morning of October 25th the students and teachers of Central High School paid tribute to the memory of Mr. W. G. E. Pulleyblank, vice-principal of the school for 26 years. A wreath of chrysanthemums and roses in gold and purple, the school colors, was on the stage.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Fawcett conducted the Service assisted by Mr. G. W. Foster and Michael Brookes. Lorraine Ames sang "My Shepherd of Galilee" and Michael Brookes, president of the Boys' Hi-Y, gave the Scripture Reading. The Assembly came to a close with the Benediction by Dr. Fawcett.

United Nations Speaking Bureau

A United Nations Speaking Bureau was formed at Central High School on October 16th and 24th with Miss Barclay presiding. The group studies the work of the United Nations and the structure of its different organizations. From time to time speakers are brought in and group discussions are conducted. The treasurer of the group is Bruce Copeland. Other members are Bill Down-ton, Robin Ransom, Rolla DePee and Wayne Ballard.

The meetings are held Monday nights at different schools throughout the city. The club sold Christmas cards in December and held a "Blue Suede Shoes" dance at Western Canada High School on May 7th, to raise money to send four students to the United Nations Summer School at Banff.

ACTIVITIES

Assemblies

Our first assembly, on September 23rd, was held in order to introduce the members of Central's football teams. Pep talks, to boost football spirit, were given by four members of the Stampeders, Bob Robinett, Bob Aguiree, Roy Jenson and Ray Bailey. This assembly was closed with the singing of the school song.

On October 25th, a Memorial Service was held for the late Mr. W. G. E. Pulleyblank. Rev. Dr. J. M. Fawcett conducted the Service and Michael Brokes gave the Scripture Reading.

At the following assembly, nominees for the executive positions in the Students' Council made campaign speeches.

Preceding the first basketball game, an assembly was held to introduce all the players. Dave Tavender acted as M.C. Next, the majorettes, under the leadership of Sharon Adams, gave the students a sample of their art. School cheers were also rehearsed by the Cheerleaders and students. A short talk on the sale of school sweaters terminated this successful assembly.

Th last gathering before the Christmas exams took place in the form of a Christmas Assembly. Under the direction of Mr. Mossop and Mr. Carter, the students sang many familiar Christmas carols.

In the early spring, the P.P.C.L.I. Band, conducted by Lieutenant H. A. Jefferies, presented an extremely enjoyable musical program for the students and staff.

On a sunny Friday afternoon in April, the students collected in the Auditorium to hear vocal selections by the Glee Club. The second part of the program consisted of a movie on safe driving, shown by Constable Don Hansen.

Freshman's Friday

Date: Thursday, November 10th.

Place: Central High Auditorium.

Occasion: To welcome the grade ten class.

Events: Ed Sullivan, sometimes known as Ross Allison, emceed this dance that was sponsored by the Boys' Hi-Y. After setting the mood for the evening by playing "Jupiter's Symphony", the highly rated C.C.I. chorus gave us their impersonations of various singers. Television personalities appearing during the program were Florian Zabaach, his dancing girl Bella, and Howdy Doody. There was also music from the Student Prince, and the Hit Parade. Commercials, without which the television parody could not have been complete, were amusingly presented throughout the program.

After the winners of the "Statue" and the "Spot" dances received their prizes, the home waltz chalked up another success for the Hi-Y.

Hoopster Hop

Central's four interscholastic basketball teams were honored on Friday, April 13th, when the Senior Girls' Y-Teen presented "Hoopster Hop".

Balloons, and streamers in the school colors, decorated the auditorium, while two gold, cardboard basketball players embellished the stage.

The dance got off to a rollicking start with an evening of television presented by the girls. Worth mentioning on the program were the acts "Guts and Gore", "Rocking Chair Sports", "Our Miss Watson", "Local Talent?" and "Kissy Mitchin' and her Hitchin' Kints".

The actual dance got under way once the audience had sufficiently recovered from their fits of laughter. Music was supplied by records.

Council Capers

The last dance of the year, "Council Capers", was presented by the Students' Council on Friday, May 17th.

Central's famous trio, "The Backhouse Five Minus Two", was in the entertainment spotlight as they played popular music on the drums, piano and trumpet.

From a decorative point of view, the auditorium was decked with black and gold music notes, streamers and balloons. Roberta Newington headed the entertainment and decorating committee.

Master of Ceremonies, Fred Valentine, kept the program going so smoothly that the large crowd was surprised and disappointed when the last dance was announced.

Graduation Dance

Who of the 1956 graduates will ever be able to forget the Graduation Dinner and Dance given to them by the Central Home and School Association on June 1st?

The auditorium was transformed by Vivian Swischuk and her committee with decorations in pastel pink and blue. Tumbleweed, covered with artificial pink blossoms, draped the sides of the stage, while lambs, flowers, and birds brightened the backboards and walls of the auditorium. A huge, white horse-shoe with "Good Luck" written on it was spotlighted on the balcony.

Entertainment included a dancing display, a vocal solo by Nancy Clark, an accordion selection by Terry Ridley and a piano solo by Diane Peddlesden.

Our bright and cheerful M.C. for the evening was Mr. J. W. Churchill. The Blue Notes, a five piece orchestra, provided the music for the gala affair.

The traditional singing of "Auld Lang Syne" at the end of the evening left many with a twinge of nostalgia.

Many thanks go to the Central Home and School Association for giving the Grade twelves such a memorable evening.

Graduation Exercises

One hundred and twenty-eight graduates gathered together on June 6th, 1956 in Central's Auditorium to receive the good wishes and fond hopes of the guest speakers and Valedictorians, Pamela Jones and John Brews. Proud parents and friends watched the impressive ceremonies as the graduates received their scrolls.

The exercises opened with the invocation given by Canon W. H. H. Crump.

Mr. Lou Goodwin, Chairman for the evening, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. E. P. Scarlett, who gave an inspiring farewell talk to the Class of '56.

The graduating students were introduced to the audience by Mr. G. W. Foster and Mr. J. W. Churchill.

Entertainment was provided throughout the program. The Orchestra and Glee Club under the direction of Mr. E. I. Carter presented various musical selections, which proved very popular among the guests. A vocal selection by Central's Sharon Stewart and a trumpet solo by Clarke Odden helped to set the mood for the evening.

"God Save the Queen" brought to a close the beautiful graduation service.

The prof. was delivering the final lecture of the term. He dwelt with much emphasis on the fact that each student should devote all the intervening time preparing for the final examinations.

"The examination papers are now in the hands of the printer. Are there any questions to be asked?"

Silence prevailed. Suddenly a voice from the rear inquired.

"Who is the printer?"

A gent was dangling a line in a river, with no bait on it. A passer-by asked "Why don't you use bait?"

"Never use bait, stranger, fishin' for mamanalees."

"Mamanalees? What in thunder are they?"

"Dunno. Never caught any."

Student: "Professor, I can't go to class today."

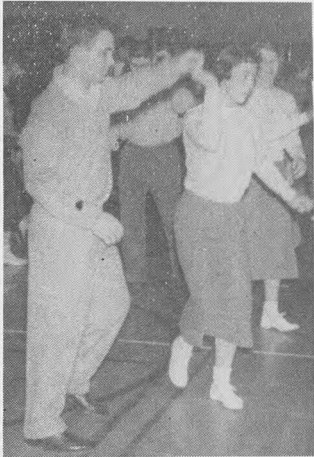

Prof.: "Why?"

Student: "I don't feel well."

Prof.: "Where don't you feel well?"

Student: "In class."

Boys' Athletic Association

The Boys' Athletic Association chose the following officers for the 1955-56 school year:

President	Dave Tavender
Vice-President	Bernard Churchill
Secretary	Tony Reed
Treasurer	Boak Alexander
Advisor	Mr. W. J. Hackett

The association enjoyed one of its most successful seasons, contributing much to Central's athletics. The boys bought several basketball uniforms, as well as a complete set of practice pants for football. In addition, the association provided for the purchase of shoulder and hip pads for the football team.

The list of projects completed this year included the sponsoring of a football dance held in October, and the delivering of Eaton's fliers, both of which considerably bolstered the athletic fund.

A committee from the association brought the season's activities to a close, when they selected the Lettermen who received their Crests on Awards Day.

Congratulations to the B.A.A. and to their sponsor, Mr. Hackett, on the completion of another successful year!

Senior Football

Although the Rams did not become a serious threat in this season's Senior Football League, the interest and enthusiasm of the team and fans never waned. Central approached their games with such incurable optimism that the opposition were kept on their toes in several thrilling contests.

Central lost all their games this year and Crescent, Western and St. Mary's, in that order, divided the spoils. The Rams were hampered in several instances by a weak backfield. A further handicap was provided by the fact that only three members of last year's squad were present. Even so, Central produced many of the most outstanding players in the league, among them Boak Alexander, Mike Brookes, John Dickson, Lisle Irwin, Frank Murphy, and Dave Tavender. Two prominent team members, guard Chester Bell, and center Nester Kelba, were elected to the Senior All-Stars.

The future has never looked brighter for a Central team. Those gridders who were newcomers to the Rams this year will begin next season as experienced veterans, thus making Central a formidable contender in Senior Football.

Our congratulations go to Mr. Saarinen, whose fine coaching produced an interscholastic team of which Central may well be proud.

Second Row—Jack Poyen, Bill Morton, John Walker, Eric Gale, Chuck Augade, Ron Thomas, Ron Cocking, John Harrop, Garrett Frinkhouser (Manager).
Front Row—Don Brown, Bob Young, John Kelly, Bob oyce, Mr. Hackett (Coach), Tommy Maguire, Sheldon Chumir, Ross Christenson, Stew Mulvey.

Junior Football

Once again the Central Juniors became one of the major contenders for the first position in the Junior Interscholastic Football League. Central finished this season's schedule seven points behind the St. Mary's Juniors, becoming the runner-up team.

The Central Juniors began the season in determined fashion, but were plagued by a two-game losing streak in which St. Mary's, bolstered by a 35-0 win, leapt ahead. In the next contest, Central blanked Western 10-0, but were unable to withstand the subsequent advances of the powerful St. Mary's team. In all, St. Mary's Juniors made six wins, remaining undefeated and finishing in first place. Central was ahead of the pack with a total of two wins, their three losses holding them back to the second position.

Several capable Centralites distinguished themselves in Junior play this year. Tom Maguire and Stew Mulvey were particularly outstanding. Ross Christenson, Sheldon Chumir, Norm Hudson and Grant Styles also played top-notch football.

Congratulations to the Juniors on a successful season!

Back Row—Nestor Kelba, John Barbarie, Boak Alexander, Pete Leveque, Ken Gale, Byron Jacobson, Frank Merfy, Jack Dickson, Bill Morton.
 Front Row—Mr. Hackett (Coach), Dave Tavender, Mr. Saarinen.
 Missing—Darryl Paul, Pat Bartlett.

Senior Boys' Interscholastic Basketball

A spirited effort by a courageous team failed to put Central in the winning position in Senior Interscholastic Basketball. The 1955-56 season marked the Rams' first loss of the Senior title in four years.

The Central hoopsters displayed a great enthusiasm and team spirit throughout the schedule. Particularly outstanding players were Boak Alexander, Pat Bartlett, Frank Murphy, and team high scorer Dave Tavender. As it became apparent during the season, the Rams, last year's inter-city champions, had suffered seriously through the loss of such stars as Bob McArthur, Doug Turner and Ron Powell.

Despite the apparent odds against them, Central opened the season by humbling both Crescent and Western in their first two games. However, the Hillmen recovered, defeating the Rams in their third game and setting the pattern for a series of Crescent wins which were to dominate the league. Led by the remarkable Macintosh, the Crescent Seniors established a lead which they never once relinquished. In five valiant attempts to re-establish themselves, Central gleaned three wins and suffered two losses. As a result, the Purple and Gold were held to a second place standing. Central's aggregate in the two-game total point final was 80, against Crescent's 102.

Our congratulations go to Mr. Hackett, who coached a fine team which played a successful season. Our best wishes go to the Central Golden Rams in their bid to recapture the Senior Championship in 1957.

Junior Boys' Interscholastic Basketball

Able coaching and top-notch player material produced another successful Junior Interscholastic team this year. The Central Golden Ramblers, under the guidance of coach Mr. Saarinen, finished their eight-game schedule with only three losses, two points ahead of their nearest rival.

The Ramblers capitalized on the several outstanding returnees and the many capable newcomers which were available to form a powerful team. Bernard Churchill, who carried off the top scoring honors in game after game, was the first-place team scorer, with 80 points to his credit. Ross Allison, Bob Joyce, Dale Parkinson, and Roly Valentine, paced the Juniors to several well-deserved victories.

The Junior Interscholastic crown was just within reach when Central entered the two-game total point final against Western. The Ramblers, however, were thwarted in every attempt by a team of determined Junior Redmen. The Westernites took both games of the final, totalling 111 points against Central's 92.

Much of the credit for the Juniors' fine showing this year must be given to Mr. Saarinen, whose invaluable coaching was greatly appreciated.

Senior Boys' House League Basketball

The four hard-fighting senior house league teams for the 1955-56 season were captained by Boak Alexander, Lisle Irwin, Frank Murphy, and Dave Tavender.

Dave Tavender's team took the league lead at the beginning to hold it tenaciously throughout the twelve-game schedule. Although the winner's position was not seriously threatened, interest and excitement were kept high by close competition in individual games. At one point in the series Boak Alexander's team trailed Tavender's by the narrow margin of 15 points to 13. However, Tavender pulled well ahead, losing only once and tying once for a total of 21 points. Alexander had 16 points, taking the runner-up position.

Number one league scorer was Frank Murphy, closely followed by Pat Bartlett. Murphy netted 124 points for his own team.

Mr. Gee is to be thanked for his co-operation in supervising the season's league play.

Back Row—Mickey Palmer, Stew Mulvey, John Walker.
Front Row—Geb Clarke, Ken Rogers.

Junior Boys' House League Basketball

Dave Ericson, Bill Ingram, Lyne Maxie, and Ken Rogers led the four teams competing in junior house league play during the 1956 season.

This year's series was especially closely-fought, as illustrated by the fact that only two points separated winner and runner-up at the season's end. Ktn Rogers' and Lyne Maxie's teams were closest contenders for top position. Rogers emerged as winner, losing twice and tying once for a total of 19 points. Lyne Maxie, only one game behind, was runner-up.

Mickey Palmer, who made a remarkable 143 points, was by far the highest individual scorer.

Front Row—Gail Windsor, Gordie Nolan, Rich Beavers.

Bantam Boys' House League Basketball

Gordie Noland's team won this year's enthusiastically contested bantam league series. The other house league teams were captained by Abb Ferris, Bob Hodge and Harvey Sheftel.

Closest competition was between Abb Ferris' and Gordie Noland's team, who showed themselves the strongest contenders for first position. Noland finished with one loss and one tie holding a narrow two-point lead over the runner-up, Ferris, who had two losses and a tie.

The top league marksman was team captain Gordie Noland with 114 points to his credit.

Bantam leaguers appreciate the supervision given by Mr. Hackett and Mr. Saarinen during the season's play.

Front Row—Chet Bell, Sandra Shaw, Pam Townsend, Ann Taylor.

Interscholastic Ski Team

The Boys' Ski Team, which consisted of Currie Harbour, Chet Bell, Bob Joyce, and Fred Valentine, came second in the city meet and third in the provincial meet. Both meets were held at Banff.

The Girls' Ski Team did not enter the provincial meet, but it came second in the city meet. The team members were: Pam Townsend, Ann Taylor, and Sandra Shaw.

Central did not retain any of her ski trophies.

Central Ski Club

The Interschool Ski Association sponsored four excursions to Banff this year, and although attendance was not very good, those that did go had a great deal of fun and improved their skiing . . . whether they were skiing the North American or the Lone Pine.

The Central Ski Club had approximately seventy-five members this year, and it is hoped that there will be at least a hundred by next year.

The executive consisted of:

President	Pam Townsend
Vice-President	Currie Harbour
Secretary	Robin McPherson
Treasurer	Bob Joyce

Back Row—Darryl Paul, Ken Gale, Kent McKinley.
Front Row—Audrey Wark, Mary Jane Will, Rena Dvorkin.

Volleyball

Mixed House League Volleyball, first introduced to Centralites last year, has literally rocketed to popularity. More than 300 eager participants signed on for the games this season.

The contestants formed thirty-two teams, 16 each in A and B leagues. The exciting noon-hour games proceeded until two top teams, captained by Richard King and Ken Gale, had eliminated all other contenders. Of the finalists, both from A league, Gale won. His team received the William Brooks Trophy, emblematic of house league volleyball supremacy.

Senior Girls' Interscholastic Basketball

Proof that nothing can stop a good team from winning was Central's come-back in the second game of the two-game total-point final against Crescent. The girls lost the first game by seven points, but really showed what a good team is made of when they cleaned Crescent in the second game by a score of 25-15. Central's final lead came when Vivian Swischuck got two free throws and Sally Williams dumped in two more baskets making the total-point score 45-40. Top scorers in the game were: Vivian Swischuck, Sally Williams and Barb Weiland, each having six points.

Center positions on the team were held by Barb Weiland, Sally Williams and Karen Schneider. The wings were Pat Power, Norma Betts, Rosemary Adams, Kathy Matsuoka, Diana Jamieson and Judy Hunter. The guards were Betty Lou Kindler, Donna Riback, Vivian Swischuck, Lynne Clayton and Evelyn Pogmore.

The team was coached by one of Central's former basketball stars, Doug Turner, who was assisted by Rolly Valentine.

The girls would like to extend their thanks to Doug, Rolly, and Miss James for their assistance.

Back Row—Marg Long, Diana Wright, Linda Lockhart, Jean Cranston, Nina Sigurdson, Peggy Barnsley, Sharon Todd, Myrna Naimark, Betty King, Gail Hoover.
Centre—Bonnie Vincent.

Junior Girls' Interscholastic Basketball

It is obvious to all Centralites that, with a score of 30-27, the only thing our girls lacked when they played Western in the league final, was luck. They had an excellent team, which had a first place standing before the final; two good coaches, Dave Tavender and Boak Alexander, and plenty of team spirit.

The team centers were: Peggy Barnsley, Nina Sigurdson and Sharon Todd. Able support in the forward ranks was given by Bonnie Vincent, Diana Wright, Margaret Long, Betty King, and Myrna Naimark. Checking was taken care of by Gail Hoover, Linda Lockhart, Pat Valentine and Jeanie Cranston.

The team would like to thank Boak and Dave for their capable coaching and Miss James for her advice and assistance.

Senior Girls' House League Basketball

There could have been no doubt in the minds of the spectators who watched the Senior Girls' House League Basketball teams play that each team was out to win every game. However, as luck would have it there can be only one winner, and this year's top team was Pat Power's. The other captains were: Lynne Clayton, Barb Weiland and Donna Riback.

In the final game Pat's team defeated Lynne's squad by a score of 35-16.

Top scorers in the league were Pat Power and Dianne Jamieson.

A big vote of thanks should go to the coaches who were Rolly Valentine, Boak Alexander, Frank Murphy and Tom Maguire. The teams would also like to thank the referees, and Miss James for her supervision.

Mimi Nagler, Linda Lockhart, Margaret Jean Coatsworth, Bonnie Vincent, Gail Hoover, Myrna Naimark, Peggy Barnsley.

Junior Girls' House League Basketball

A team which certainly came through with flying colors this year was Bonnie Vincent's. Coached by Rosemary Adams, they finished the season undefeated, and walked off easily with the Junior Girls' House League Basketball Trophy.

Diana Wright's team, coached by Donna Riback, and Nina Sigurdson's team, coached by Barb Wieland, tied for second place in the series. Third place was taken by Jeanie Cranston's squad which was coached by Pat Power.

The girls would like to extend their thanks to Miss James, the scorekeepers, and the referees, all of whom made this league and the fun that went with it possible.

Back Row—Pat Bartlett, George Bergens, Bill McGuffin, Richard Newson, Archie Stone, Gerald Lamont, Doug McLean, Bill Dickson.
Second Row—John McMeekin, Chet Bell, Scott Lamon, Diana Wigsall, Judy DeBoda, Iris Douglas, Evelyn Pogmore, Mr. Robertson.

Badminton Club

The Badminton Club played their games in the school gym every Monday and Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

In the badminton tournament, which was sponsored by the Badminton Club, Scott Lamon won the boys' championship, and Judy Gooder won the girls' championship.

This year the Badminton Club had a membership of approximately forty members.

The executive consisted of:

President	Judy deBoda
Vice-President	Pat Palmer
Secretary-Treasurer	Judy Gooder
Teacher-Sponsor	Mr. Robertson

Back Row—John McMeekin, Chet Bell, Doug McLean, Scott Lamon, Mr. Robertson (Coach).
 Front Row—Judy Simpson, Judy Gooder, Pat Palmer.
 Missing—Debby Wing.

Interscholastic Badminton Team

The members of the Central team were:

Team A—Scott Lamon and Judy Gooder.

Team B—Chet Bell and Debbie Wing.

Team C—John McMeekin and Pat Palmer.

Team D—Doug. McLean and Judy Simpson.

In the 1955-56 round-robin, which was held at the Glencoe Club, Central was beaten by a score of 26-23 by Western. This gave Central a standing of second place.

The team would like to thank Mr. Robertson for his able coaching.

ATHLETICS

Back Row—Gerald Kennedy, Charles Wainberg, Don MacKay, Norm Goodrich, John Armstrong, John Barclay.

Middle Row—John Walker, Ron McLean, Thornley Darlington, Lee Miller, Albert Truhn, Yale Chernoff.

Curling Team

Four teams of enthusiastic Central curlers participated in interscholastic competition during the 1955-56 season. Central met a total of twelve teams from Crescent, Mount Royal, St. Mary's, and Western, in regular Monday and Friday contests.

Skips of the Central teams were: Mike Brookes, Darryl Hutchings, Doug MacLean and Sinclair Young. An additional team, skipped by Albert Truhn and including Ken McIvor, Sinclair Young and Doug MacLean, entered the "Tech" Bonspiel held at Easter.

Dr. Miller, who sponsored the Central Teams, and the Elks Club, who underwrote high school curling, are to be especially thanked for their support of the sport.

Bowling Club

Ask any Central student where he is going on Friday afternoon after four o'clock and nine times out of ten he will tell you that he is going over to the Olympic Bowling Alleys. This is a very natural reply because the Bowling Club is one of the most popular and largest clubs at Central.

The 1955-56 Bowling Club executive was:

Honorary President	Mr. Gislason
President	Gail Smith
Vice-President	Eric Lebow
Secretary	Dave Hale

The fourteen team captains were Murray Young, Fred Zemans, Chuck Mendleman, Chet Bell, Jean MacGregor, Gail Smith, Norm Hudson, Dianne Jamieson, Merrill Upton, Donna Riback, Mike Fenerty, Dave Hale and Eric Lebow.

Individual honors went to: Team high double, Murray Young; Team high single, Murray Young; Men's high double, Dave Hale; Men's high single, Don Hamilton; Ladies' high double, Shirley Wark; Ladies' high single, Kathy Baxter.

In the Bowling Club round robin, Murray Young's team came out on top. Second place was taken by Dianne Jamieson's team.

Interscholastic Bowling Team

Central retained the Interscholastic Bowling Trophy for another year. It is awarded annually by the Olympic Bowling Alleys to the top Calgary high school bowlers. Central entered four teams with a total of 19 players.

This was the first year that Calgary sent a team of 17 high school bowlers to Red Deer for a roll-off versus Edmonton, Rocky Mountain House, Stettler, and Red Deer. Central placed 12 of her students on the team. In the competition Calgary finished third in the ladies' team competition and last in the mens' and mixed team competitions. Judy Hunter was outstanding for Calgary, bowling 675 for three games in the ladies' event.

In the Western Canada High School Telegraphic Roll-off, Central had eleven out of fifteen bowlers on the team. Again the three sections, Men's, Ladies' and Mixed, were represented. On the Ladies' team, Shirley Wark was first, while on the Men's team Dave Hale was second.

Boys' Track

Central boys, although failing to retain the Alex Martin Shield, gave a gallant performance at their 41st annual track and field meet. The aggregate total, which placed the team in fourth position, gave little indication of the spirit and courage they displayed in their events.

High jumper Grant Cameron marked up a new record for the junior division. Frank Murphy placed first in the mile run, becoming the first Central runner ever to win the event. Among the other track stars were Jack Hagen, Nestor Kelba, Dave Hale and Boak Alexander.

Coaches Hackett and Saarinen are to be commended for their hard work in preparing Central boys for a bravely-fought track meet.

The individual standings were as follows:

Girls' Track

The students of Central can truthfully say that their Girls' Track Team is one of the best that Central has ever produced. Winning the Dr. A. B. Singleton Trophy is not an easy feat, but the Central girls managed to accomplish it with a score of $71\frac{1}{2}$ points, beating their nearest rival (Western) by $39\frac{1}{2}$ points. Central won the Henry Birks' Shield for the Junior Class with $33\frac{1}{2}$ points and the Hudson's Bay Co. Trophy for the Seniors with a 38 point total.

The top girl in the entire Meet was Pat Power who chalked up 15 points for Central. Pat won the 80 Metre Hurdles, the Running Broad Jump, and set a new record for the Senior Girls' 100 Yard Dash.

A hearty "Well Done" should go to Miss James, who supervised the team, and to the following girls:

There was a certain rather conceited nurse at the hospital who always deducted ten beats from a patient's pulse to allow for personality.

"Would you call for help if I tried to kiss you?"

"Do you need help?"

"Hey! Sit down in front."

"Quit yer kidding. I don't bend that way."

Telephone Operator: "I'm sorry, sir,—that number has been taken out."

Nestor Kelba on Phone: "Oh, is that so? Well, can you give me any information as to just who has taken her out?"

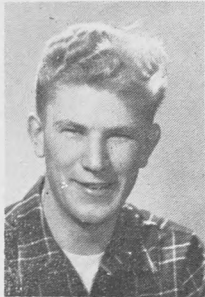

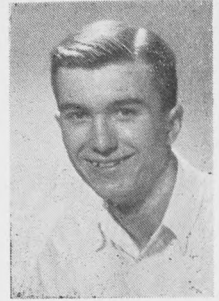

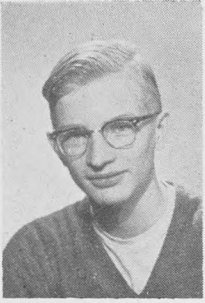

Private: "An MP just hanged himself, Sarge."

Sarge: "Holy smoke! Have you cut him down?"

Private: "No. He ain't dead yet."

Four men went into the Arctic to explore. They were a Canadian, an American, an Englishman and a Scotsman.

It was very cold and the Englishman died, so the other three buried him. They erected a cross on the grave and decided that each would leave a $5 bill as a tribute.

The Canadian walked forward and put $5 on the grave.

The American walked forward, put $5 on the grave and said, "Bless you."

The Scot walked up, wrote a check for $15 and picked up the $10.

A teacher noticed that one little boy was drawing everything in a heavy black crayon. He drew black horses, black cows, and black barns. Disturbed about what was going on in his mind, she called a meeting of the little boy's parents, the principal of the school and a psychiatrist.

They finally got at the root of the trouble—it was the only crayon he had.

On a bus, two shop girls were discussing the art of conversation.

'Mame,' said one, "take 'I'll say' and 'I'll tell the world' away from some people and you cut their conversation practically to zero."

To which her companion enthusiastically rejoined, "I hope to tell you! Ain't it the truth!"

IT HAS BEEN A PLEASURE CONTRIBUTING TO YOUR FINE YEAR BOOK.

Congratulations !
